

Crown Broadcast offers the most versatile, cost effective, range of FM broadcast transmitters & translators available in Australia today.

Whatever your requirement:

- full featured commercial RF transmitter power levels from 30 watts - 10Kwatt
- optional audio processor and stereo generator built-in
- backup transmitter for commercial broadcast (DC powered)
- nearcast devices for stadiums and other venues
- translator, repeater, booster to extend broadcast coverage
- satellator with FSK IDer to extend data coverage
- high reliability weather radio transmitters with dual redundancy

Low Powered FM transmitters 30, 150, 300 watt simple to use. Set frequency on the front panel, add audio source, attach antenna & you're ready to transmit. Remote control & monitoring plus a 3 year warranty make this the perfect transmitter package available in three configurations:

- T option includes audio processor & stereo generator, RF exciter, metering, low-pass filter.
- E option is an exciter only with composite audio input - use your own audio processing.
- R option for use as a translator, booster - a receiver is included in the configuration.

Detailed specifications available by clicking on the desired power output.

Medium to High Powered FM transmitters 600, 1K, 2K, 4K, 10K watt provides broadcasters with the power & reliability expected of Crown Broadcast. The 600 watt model is available with the T, E, R options as above.

Crown weather radio transmitters are designed for maximum reliability in the face of emergency response & disaster alert situations. Each system consists of two transmitters, exciter, power amplifier & power supply all compatible with ROAMS/NWR-SAME control.

Available in 300 & 1000 watt dual redundant systems.

